Impostor Reporting Resources

Impostors are an ongoing problem to individuals and organizations. If you do not have social media accounts you are still at risk. Protect yourself and the Army brand by aggressively monitoring and reporting impostors to social media platforms. Find detailed information in the Army's Social Media Handbook, which features chapters devoted to Impostors and Social Media Scammers. The handbook can be found at https://www.army.mil/e2/rv5_downloads/socialmedia/army_social_media_handbook.pdf

If you have issues removing impostor accounts after you report them, contact the Office of the Chief of Public Affairs' Online and Social Media Division at usarmy.pentagon.hqda-ocpa.mbx.osmd-inquiry@mail.mil with the subject line "Request: impostor reporting assistance."

The U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command also maintains an extensive library of electronic flyers with information on social media security, internet scams, and reporting processes to both military and civilian law enforcement offices at <http://www.cid.army.mil/cciu-advisories.html>.
